

FLIGHTS FROM POLAND

Routes and Airlines per airport

This chart compares major Polish airports by number of routes (bars) and airlines (line). Warsaw (WAW) leads with 141 routes and 36 airlines, followed by Kraków (KRK) with 131 routes and 33 airlines. Together, Warsaw and Kraków account for over half of all Polish air routes.

Europe, Direct from Warsaw

Flights per day

- [30-40]
- [20-30]
- [10-20]
- [0-10]
- No flights / Not in Europe

The map illustrates destinations accessible via direct flights across Europe from Warsaw. The color intensity of each country indicates the total number of daily flights to that destination, aggregated across all airports. The highest daily frequency is observed for Germany and Italy.

TOP 5 LONGEST ROUTES*

FLIGHT TIME	DESTINATION	GATE	STATUS
12:50	TOKIO	B03	GATE OPEN
12:35	LOS ANGELES	A12	DELAYED
11:40	MIAMI	C37	ON TIME
11:20	SEUL		CANCELED
10:40	KRABI	A23	BOARDING

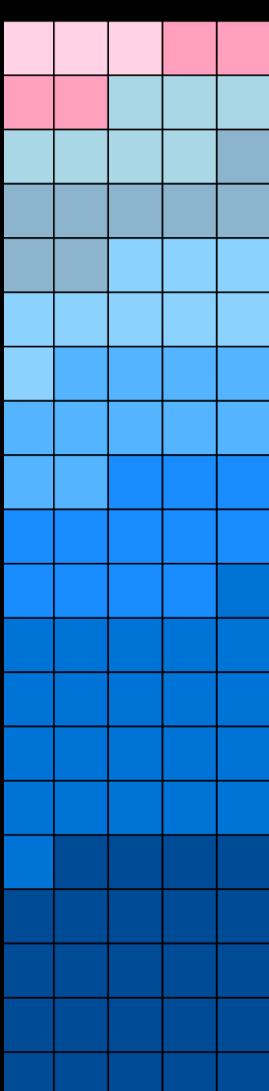

*All of these routes are departing from Chopin Airport and are operated by LOT Polish Airlines

Departures

Most popular holiday destinations

100 tiles = 100% of flights, 1 tile ≈ 2%

Country

United Kingdom
Albania
Bulgaria
Spain
Croatia
Turkey
Italy
Greece
Other

Greece...

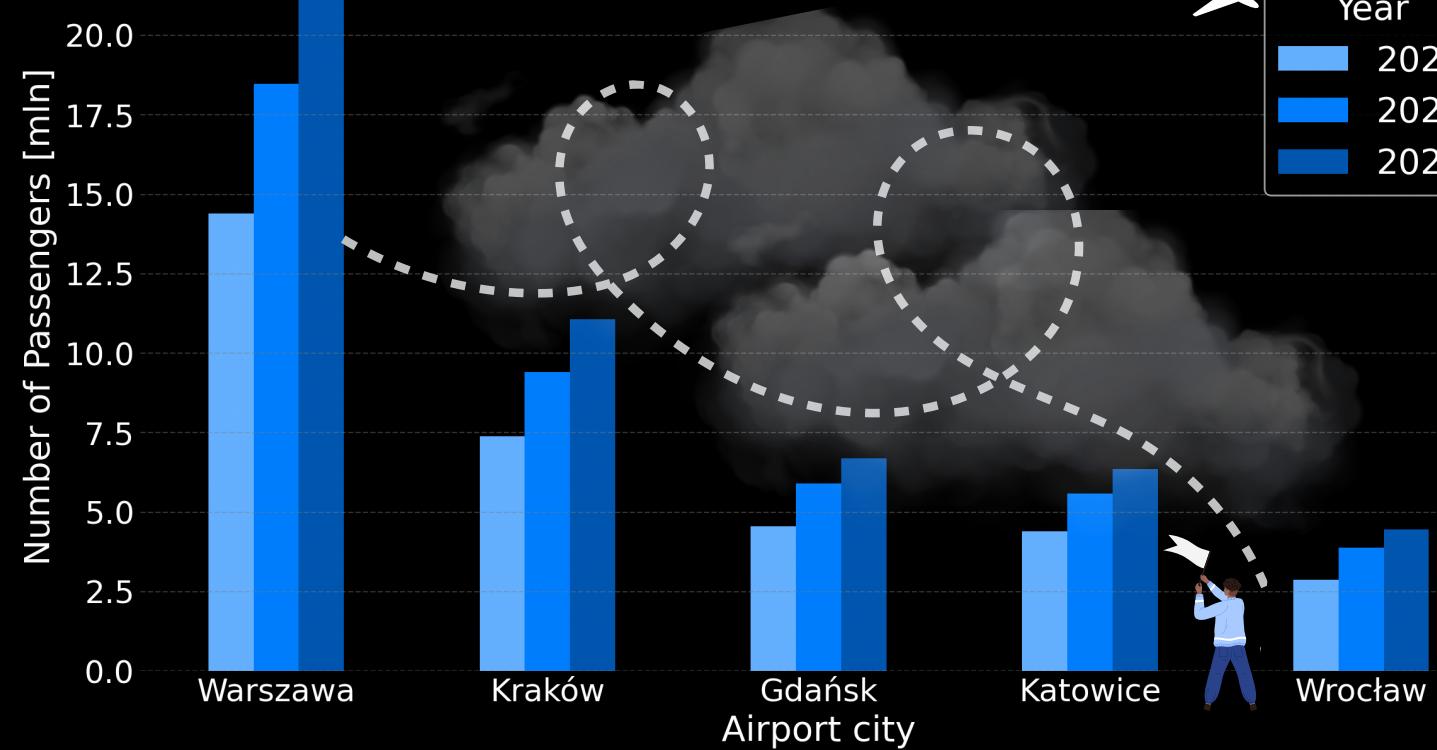

From Poland, you can fly to Greece non-stop from 7 different Polish airports to 8 destinations in Greece, with a total of 35 direct routes operating between the two countries. This breadth of connections shows just how popular Greece is for Polish holiday-makers: whether it's the islands, the mainland, beach resorts or cultural cities, Greece offers a wide variety of escapes from Poland.

AUTHORS: Bartłomiej Domanowski, Aleksandra Mulewicz, Emilia Olszewska

SOURCES: <https://ulc.gov.pl>
<https://www.flightsfrom.com>
<https://github.com/ip2location/ip2location-iata-icao?tab=readme-ov-file>

Passenger top 5 traffic

Year	2022	2023	2024
Warszawa	14.5	18.5	20.5
Kraków	7.5	9.5	11.5
Gdańsk	4.5	5.5	6.5
Katowice	4.5	5.5	6.5
Wrocław	3.5	4.5	5.5

The chart illustrates the number of passengers handled at the five largest airports in Poland between 2022 and 2024. Each color represents the passenger volume in a given year. As shown, overall air traffic has increased annually, reflecting the steady growth of passenger demand. Warsaw Chopin Airport remains by far the largest airport in Poland, handling over 21 million passengers in 2024, maintaining its dominant position in the national air transport network.

LOTR in the air

Three longest routes take more than 11.5 hours each which is long enough to watch the entire Lord of the Rings trilogy on board!

Krabi flight

Crosses about 8 time zones and covers over 8,200 km – nearly one-fifth of Earth's circumference.

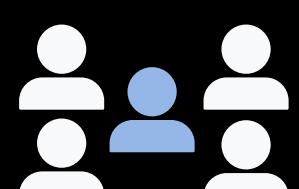

4-5 hours flying over Siberia

On the 8,900 km flight from Warsaw to Tokyo, planes spend about fourth of the journey flying over Siberia.

Sunset came early?

On flights to Miami, thanks to the time difference passengers often land before sunset on the same day they take off.

1 in 5 people wants Greece

This year, 1 in 5 travelers chose Greece as their vacation spot with Athens leading the way.

Olsztyn Mazury Airport least visited

In 2024, Olsztyn-Mazury Airport welcomed 72,246 passengers, making it the least busy airport in Poland that year.

